

I strongly urge you not to change the FCC regulations forbidding cross ownership.

The more the media is owned by fewer and fewer corporate giants, the less the public is served.

Only mindless free-marketeers don't understand this.

If you persist in changing the rules, you show you are against democracy.

I will work very hard to oust the present members of the FCC (legally of course).

This will not stand.